RPHA 70 ST

HJC Helmets announces the RPHA 70 ST Black Panther, their latest helmet from the Marvel Universe, in addition to the CL-17 Punisher II. HJC began producing licensed Marvel character graphics in 2016 and now they have released a helmet inspired by one of the most anticipated characters in the Avengers series. The Black Panther graphic is featured on the RPHA 70 ST, HJC's latest model from the premium RPHA series.

MARVEL
CL-17

The original CL-17 Punisher helmet was one of HJC's best sellers, so HJC knew a refreshed Punisher graphic would be just as popular. The matte black base has not changed on the CL-17 Punisher II, but the new skull design resembles the Punisher's hard-core character even more than HJC's first Punisher helmet.

ANDREA IANNONE

HJC Helmets is pleased to announce Andrea Iannone as a sponsored rider in the 2018 and 2019 MotoGP race seasons. Iannone will debut two new replica graphics for the RPHA 11 Pro. The wild, but cool, charisma that can be seen in Andrea on and off the track makes HJC eager to start the 2018 season.

THE 2017 MOTOAMERICA SUPERBIKE CHAMPION. TONI ELIAS

2018 is expected to be a very exciting year of racing in the MotoAmerica series. HJC is delighted to continue their sponsorship with Toni Elias, the 2017 MotoAmerica Superbike Champion. Toni Elias is a Spanish rider and the 2010 Moto2 World Champion and he has been very successful in the American series since his arrival in 2016.

THE NEW HOPE. GARRET GERLOFF

HJC has signed Garrett Gerloff for the 2018 season. Gerloff is the 2016 and 2017 Mo-toAmerica SuperSport Champion. HJC is excited to support an up and coming American rider and expects that he will be very competitive in the most elite class in North America.
